

I Never Could

(prompted poetry for Adrea)

days roll into weeks; weeks -- years; years to a lifetime.

and still I never could.

strangers become friends; friends -- lovers ; and love is forever.

but I never could.

heart sends words; words -- mouth; mouth stays silent.

because I never could.

I never could.

I never should.

...I never would...

silence to words; words to paper; paper to you.

strangers to friends; friends to strangers; then back again.

a lifetime rolls back into days.
